

Right to Information and Information Privacy Access Application

Right to Information Act 2009 (section 24)

Information Privacy Act 2009 (section 43)

Please read the following information carefully before proceeding with your application

It is recommended that you contact the RTI officer in the relevant agency for assistance and advice before completing and submitting this application form.

The information you are seeking may be already available online, for purchase or by request:

Online – a search of the relevant agency websites may locate the information you are seeking;

For purchase – agencies may offer documents for purchase (for example: birth certificates, transcripts of proceedings, spatial statistics);

By request – agencies may administratively release a range of information upon request.

If you do wish to make a formal application to access documents under the Right to Information (RTI) Act 2009 or the Information Privacy (IP) Act 2009, the application must be submitted on this approved form. The completed form should be submitted directly to:

agency: , via facsimile on:

in person at: or via post:

On-line applications can be made to Queensland government departments and Ministers via www.rti.qld.gov.au.

Applications requesting access to non-personal information or a combination of personal and non-personal information are made under the RTI Act. There is an application fee of $38 and processing and access charges may be payable.

Applications requesting access to personal information only are made under the IP Act. There is no application fee or processing charges for access to personal information only, however access charges may be payable. You will be required to provide evidence of your identity.

Note: If your application seeks access to personal information of someone other than yourself (except where you are authorised to act on that person's behalf), or where you are also seeking access to documents that are considered non-personal, your application will be dealt with under the RTI Act. You will be advised by the RTI officer if this is the case, and you will be required to pay the RTI application fee. In doubt, contact the RTI officer of the agency to which you are applying.

Note: Denotes Mandatory field

7. Financial hardship

Concession card holders - Applications for financial hardship must be made in writing to the relevant agency. If you hold a valid concession card, and you are seeking a waiver of processing and access charges, you must show the RTI officer your card (or attach a copy of the card to your application).

Note: Not all concession cards are accepted. Please contact the RTI officer to be sure your card qualifies.

Non-Profit organisations - If you have financial hardship status, you must provide the RTI officer with a copy of the notice from the Office of the Information Commissioner showing that financial hardship status has been granted.

Note: If you are a non-profit organisation and have sought financial hardship status under the RTI Act, do not submit this application until you have advice from the Office of the Information Commissioner about whether financial hardship status has been granted. If financial hardship status is granted, this status will remain current for one year from the date of the Information Commissioner's decision, unless there is a substantial improvement in your organisation's financial circumstances.

Declaration

Privacy Notice: In making this application, you are providing personal information such as name and contact details. This information will be used for the purpose of assessing your application and ensuring we are able to remain in contact with you regarding the status of your application. Your personal information will be accessed by persons who have been authorised to do so, including the decision maker in the agency to which your application relates. Your personal information is handled in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

I declare that:

- The information provided in this form is complete and correct
- I have read the privacy notice
- Where applicable, I have attached documents required for the purpose of this application (e.g. evidence of identity, authorisation to act on another person's behalf, evidence of financial hardship status)
- In the event I cannot attach any required copies of documents, I will provide them to the agency within 10 business days of making this application
- I have included any relevant application fee/s (fees are based on the type of application, and are noted in section 1)

I understand that it is an offence to give misleading information about my identity, and that doing so may result in a decision to refuse to process my application.
