

The Commission will be consulting in various locations around the State in early 2017. As part of its consultation process, Commission staff will be available to meet privately with individuals who may have an interest in the review.

Details of the Commission's consultation process, including information about dates, venues and times for consultation are set out below.

The Commission would like to hear your views.

If you are interested in speaking privately with an officer from the Commission, please make a meeting appointment by telephoning (07) 3247 4544 or emailing the Commission at LawReform.Commission@justice.qld.gov.au.

Should a domestic violence disclosure scheme be introduced in Queensland?
