

Ipswich Information Sessions

We've been asked to review

- the partial defence to murder of killing for preservation in an abusive domestic relationship
- self-defence
- provocation as a partial defence to murder
- provocation as a defence to assault
- domestic discipline
- the mandatory penalty of life for murder
- related practices and procedures

Our Consultation Paper

- Significant reforms are required
- Queensland laws need to be effective, fair and consistent with community attitudes
- See our recent publications for more information

Join us to:

- Learn about our findings
- Share your insights on our proposals
- Help shape the conversation

Have your say

Public Information and Drop-in Session

When	Wednesday 26 March 2025
Where	The 1 Nicholas Street (building), Event space 1 1 Union Place, Ipswich. Parking access at 6 Bremer Street
Time	2.00pm - 3.00pm

Legal Stakeholders

When	Wednesday 26 March 2025
Where	The 1 Nicholas Street (building), Event space 1 1 Union Place, Ipswich. Parking access at 6 Bremer Street
Time	3.30pm to 5.00pm

Capacity for this event is limited. Registration for this event is required by emailing: qlrc-criminaldefence@justice.qld.gov.au

To arrange a private meeting email us at qlrc-criminaldefence@justice.qld.gov.au. We invite your written submissions, due 20 April 2025.

